

ISO 14064-1, ISO 14068-1 and Voluntary Carbon Crediting Schemes- Verified Carbon Standard (VCS) and Gold Standard (GS)

Introductory Webinar

TRAINING PROGRAMME

Introduction to GHG Accounting & Climate Neutrality

- Overview of climate change and the role of GHG accounting
- Key international frameworks (Paris Agreement, IPCC, ISO standards)

Understanding ISO 14064-1:2018 (Organizational Carbon Footprint)

- Purpose and scope of ISO 14064-1
- Organizational and operational boundaries for GHG accounting
- Quantification, monitoring, and reporting of GHG emissions and removals

Introduction to ISO 14068-1 (Climate Neutrality)

- Core principles and requirements of ISO 14068-1
- Climate neutrality claims and reporting requirements
- How ISO 14064-1 supports ISO 14068-1

Introduction to Voluntary Carbon Markets (VCM)

- What are voluntary carbon markets and how they differ from compliance market
- Who participates (project developers, buyers, investors)?
- Why companies purchase carbon credits (e.g., climate goals, claims, CSR)

What are VCM, GS and VERRA?

- Role of standardized carbon crediting systems in the voluntary market
- VCS and Gold Standard as independent frameworks
- Net zero vs carbon offsetting

How they work – General overview

- High-level view of project cycles
- Registration, validation, verification, issuance, and retirement of credits
- Governance and oversight

BM Certification's Role as a Validation & Verification Body

- Our accreditation, scope and examples of project types we've worked with
- Our process: how we conduct validations and verifications
- Challenges and key considerations in auditing

Questions and Answer

bm
certification

VENUE

Remotly (MS Teams)

DATE AND TIME

June 30, 2025
CET 9.00-11.00

PARTICIPATION FEE

250 EUR + VAT

LECTURER

Harshini Rananjali,
Seymour Ersoy
BM Certification Group

LANGUAGE

English

CONTACTS

info.fi@bmcertification.com

T.: +371 67772135

Participants will receive a certificate from BM Certification after attending the course